

10

Worst Data Breaches

in the last decade

2010-2020

1 Sony

Year- 2011

Hackers compromised 77 million PlayStation gaming console user accounts, gaining access to their names, addresses and other sensitive data.

2 Yahoo

Year- 2013

Whopping 3 billion accounts compromised in a 2013 data leak — although news of the leak didn't come out until September 2017.

3 Target

Year- 2013

During the post-Thanksgiving holiday shopping spree, 40 million credit and debit card numbers of Target shoppers were compromised.

4 Home Depot

Year- 2014

The data breach affected more than 50 million Home Depot customers.
Home Depot agreed to pay at least $19.5 million to customers who were affected |

5 Anthem

Year- 2015

Hackers stole sensitive information from approximately 79 million records in its database.

Anthem announced to pay $115 million to settle lawsuits over the data breach

6 JPMorgan Chase

Year- 2015

One of the largest cyber data breaches in history that affected approximately 76 million households and 7 million small businesses.

7 Myspace

Year- 2016

Myspace confirmed a data breach of user names, email addresses and passwords for approximately 360 million accounts

8 Equifax

Year- 2017

145.5 million customers' Social Security numbers, birthdates and other sensitive data compromised from mid-May through July 2017

9 Alteryx

Year- 2017

The data breach exposed sensitive information of 123 million American households & was unsecured and open to anyone to access

10 Capital One

Year- 2019

The breach affected 100 million people in the U.S. and an additional 6 million in Canada who have Capital One credit cards

Compare & choose best-fit cybersecurity solutions for free in real-time

Log on to  <https://cyberpal.io>

It's free to use! No credit cards, no sign-ups required!

Follow Cyberpal® on LinkedIn

We keep you posted on cybersecurity products, partners, and major updates.